

WHAT ELSE YOU SHOULD KNOW

- A link to another account or a line of credit may be a less expensive option than an overdraft. A single larger overdraft will result in just one fee, as opposed to multiple smaller overdrafts. Good account management is the best way to avoid overdrafts. Use our mobile banking and Online Banking services to keep track of your balance. For additional financial education resources, please visit www.mymoney.gov.
- The $25 OD/Courtesy Pay Fee that is charged is the same fee amount that is charged if an item is returned as unpaid. If the item is $5 or less, we will not charge a fee. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, each item will be assessed an appropriate OD/Courtesy Pay Fee or a Non-Sufficient Funds Fee of $25. All fees and charges will be included as part of the Courtesy Pay limit amount. Your account may become overdrawn more than the Courtesy Pay limit amount because of a fee.
- Recipients of federal or state benefits payments who do not wish us to deduct the amount overdrawn and the Overdraft Fee from funds that you deposit or that are deposited into your account may call us at 402.472.2087 to discontinue Courtesy Pay.
- If an item is returned because the Available Balance (as defined below) in your account is not sufficient to cover the item and the item is presented for payment again, University of Nebraska Federal Credit Union ("We") may charge a Non-Sufficient Funds Fee each time it returns the item because it exceeds the Available Balance in your account. Because we may charge a Non-Sufficient Funds Fee each time an item is presented, we may charge you more than one fee for any given item as a result of a returned item and representment of the item. When we charge a Non-Sufficient Funds Fee, the charge reduces the Available Balance in your account and may put your account into (or further into) overdraft. If, on representment of the item, the Available Balance in your account is sufficient to cover the item we may pay the item, and, if payment causes an overdraft, charge an OD/Courtesy Pay Fee.
- There is no limit on the total OD/Courtesy Pay or Non-Sufficient Funds Fees per day we will charge you for overdrawing your account. We will not charge an OD/Courtesy Pay Fee on an account if the amount of the item is $5 or less.
- Our general policy is to post items throughout the day and to post ACH credits before debits. ATM transactions, ACH debits, checks, and debit card transactions are posted in order in which the items are received.
- Courtesy Pay is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.
- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosure. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
- Although under payment system rules, NUFCU may be obligated to pay for some unauthorized debit card transactions, NUFCU will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless your account's available balance (including Overdraft Coverage Options) is sufficient to cover the transactions and any fee(s).
- Giving us your consent to pay everyday debit card and ATM overdrafts on your account (Extended Coverage) may result in you incurring OD/Courtesy Pay Fees for transactions that we would otherwise be required to pay without assessing an OD/Courtesy Pay Fee. However, this would allow us to authorize transactions up to the amount of your Courtesy Pay limit. If you consent to Extended Coverage on your account, it will remain on your account until it is otherwise withdrawn.
- NUFCU authorizes and pays transactions using the available balance in your account. NUFCU may place a hold on deposited funds in accordance with our Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount in your available balance. The available balance for checks, ACH items, and recurring debit card transactions is comprised of the balance, less any holds on deposited funds and any debit card holds, plus the amount of the Courtesy Pay limit and any available Automatic Transfer or Overdraft Protection Line of Credit. The available balance for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Standard Coverage is the balance, less any holds on deposited funds and any debit card holds, plus any available Automatic Transfer or Overdraft Protection Line of Credit but does NOT include the Courtesy Pay limit. For accounts with Extended Coverage, the Courtesy Pay limit is included in the available balance for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions.

- Please be aware that the Courtesy Pay amount is not included in your available balance provided through Online Banking, mobile banking or NUFCU's ATMs.
- NUFCU will place a hold on your account for any authorized debit card transaction until the transaction settles (usually within two business days) or as permitted by payment system rules. In some cases, the hold may exceed the amount of the transaction. When the hold ends, the funds will be added to the available balance in your account. If your account is overdrawn after the held funds are added to the available balance and the transaction is posted to the available balance, an OD/Courtesy Pay Fee may be assessed.
- Except as described herein, NUFCU will not pay items if the available balance in your account (including the Courtesy Pay limit, if applicable) is not sufficient to cover the item(s) and the amount of any fee(s).

Understanding your Available Balance: Your account has two kinds of balances: the Balance and the Available Balance.

- We authorize and pay transactions using the Available Balance.
- Your Balance reflects the full amount of all deposits to your account as well as payment transactions that have been posted to your account. It does not reflect checks you have written and are still outstanding or transactions that have been authorized but are still pending.
- Your Available Balance is the amount available to you to use for purchases, withdrawals, or to cover transactions. The Available Balance is your Balance, less any holds due to pending debit card transactions and holds on deposited funds.
- The balance used for authorizing checks, ACH items, and recurring debit card transactions is your Available Balance plus the amount of the Courtesy Pay limit and any available Overdraft Protection.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Standard Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection but does NOT include the Courtesy Pay limit.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Extended Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection and includes the Courtesy Pay limit.
- Because your Available Balance reflects pending transactions and debit holds, your balance may appear to cover a transaction but later upon settlement it may not be sufficient to cover such transaction. In such cases, the transaction may further overdraw your account and be subject to additional overdraft fees. You should assume that any item which would overdraw your account based on your Available Balance may create an overdraft. Note that we may place a hold on deposited funds in accordance with our Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount in your Available Balance.

Understanding Courtesy Pay Limits

- Eligible new consumer checking accounts will receive a $50 Introductory Courtesy Pay limit at account opening that may be increased to $750 after thirty (30) days in good standing.
- Courtesy Pay may be suspended or reduced if you default on any loan or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, or if you fail to maintain your account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within thirty-two (32) days for a minimum of one business day. You must bring your account balance positive for at least one business day to have the full Courtesy Pay limit reinstated.
